

“ADELA”

(HUMAN TRAFFICKING)

Adela

Human trafficking

Manuel y Concepción are a hard working marriage, however, Manuel has been unemployed for two month.

I'm here...

You been late

Well, there will be work but, in a few months.

You have a beautiful daughter of 16 years old

Adela

Now, we're going through a hard economic situation

Come on, come to eat.

I already brought the tortillas

Well, I have already told you that I was offered a job in the Maquila.

OK. But is kind of far, they leave too late and is hard

I also can look for a job.

No, Adela. They request more experience. Help me around the house and we'll see later

Alright, mom. I'll help you with whatever you want in the house, but also i wan't to work

Thanks!

This is how Concepción starts working in the Maquila.

They can only talk a bit while eating.

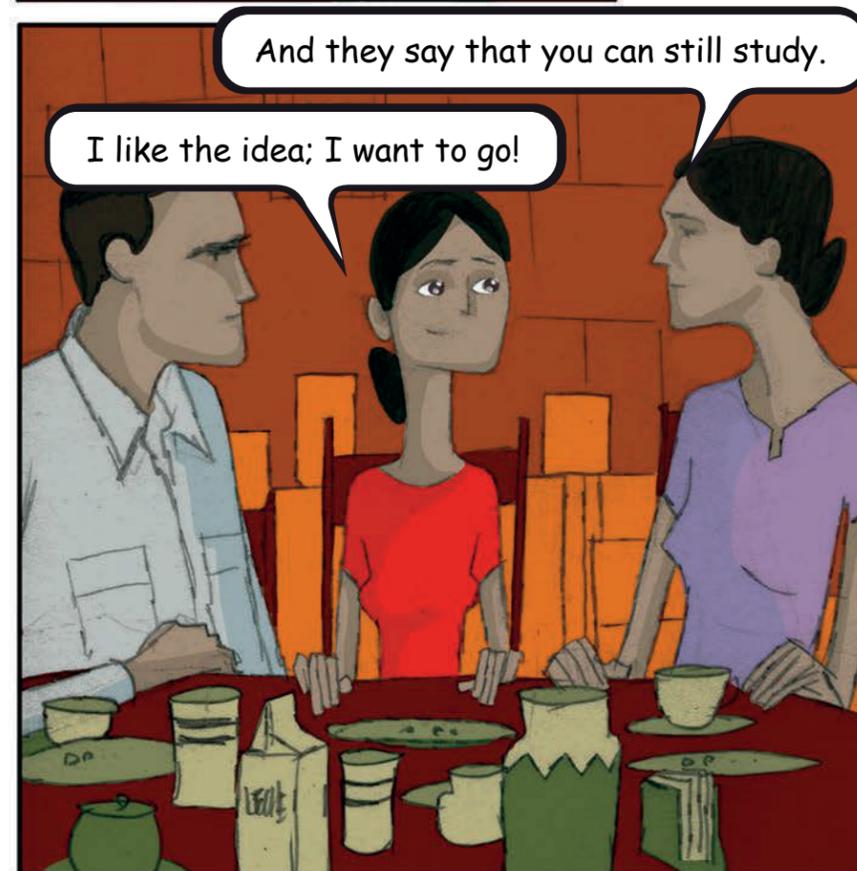

Today I brought bread, would you like?

My daughter wants to work too.

Really? Maria told us that there was a good job

I can share fruit with you.

About what? Let's ask her, there she comes

Concepcion and Manuel decided to meet the man that offers the job.

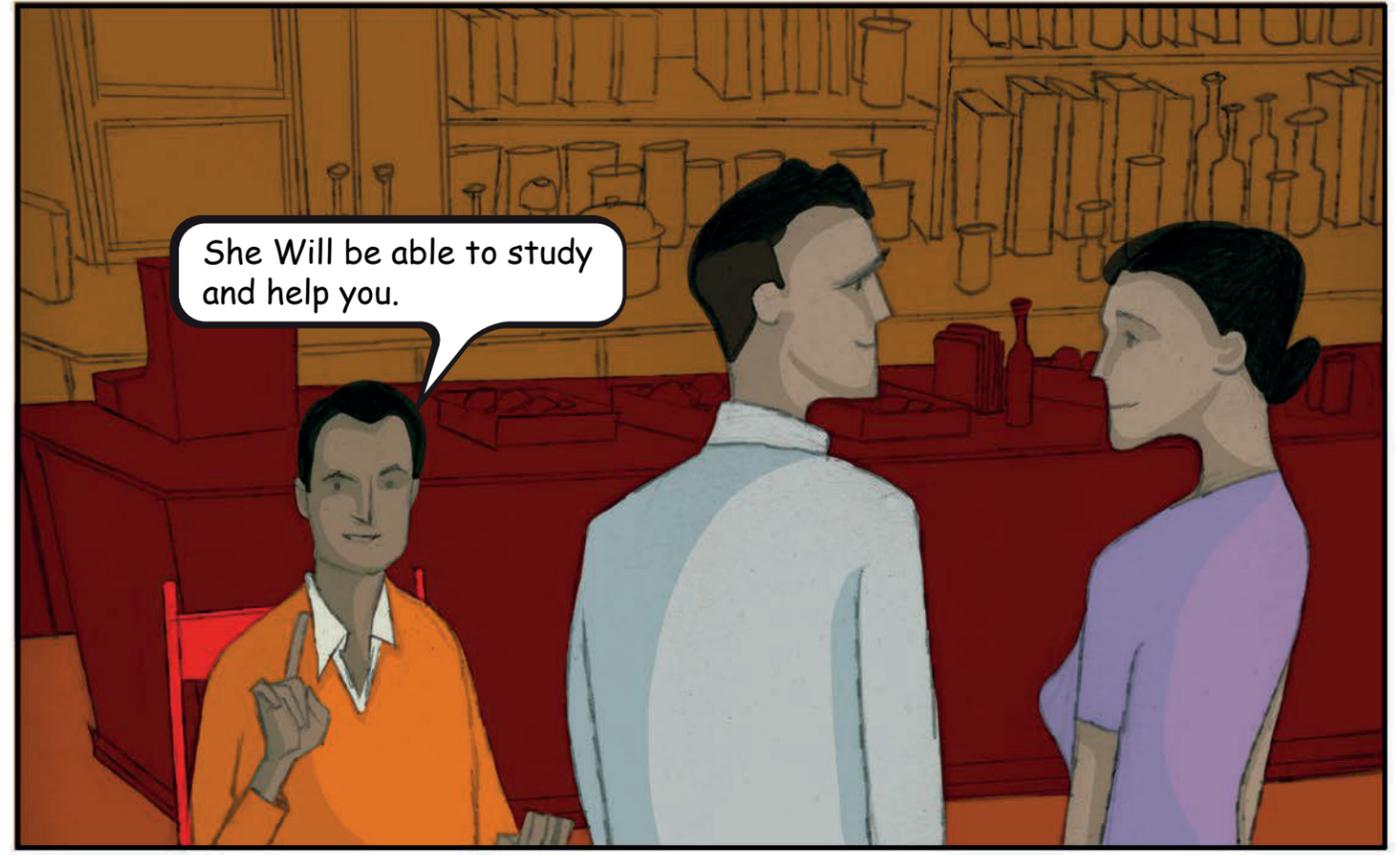

Good afternoon, excuse me, could you explain about the waitress job?

It is for my daughter

Don't worry, it is a serious job of waitress, with a living waige and hosting

Sure, it Will be my pleasure

She Will be able to study and help you.

Let's go tell Adela about it

The next day

How weird!

Concepcion goes to the dining room to look for her classmates and see everyone around Gloria who cries inconsolably

What happened?

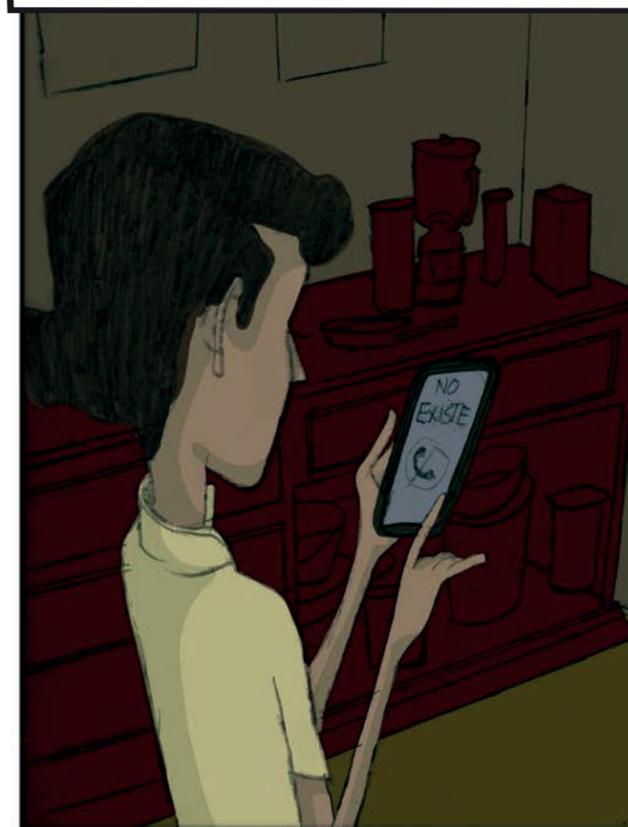

She cries because her daughter went to work as a waitress to another city and she has no hear from her for a long time

She left really optimistic

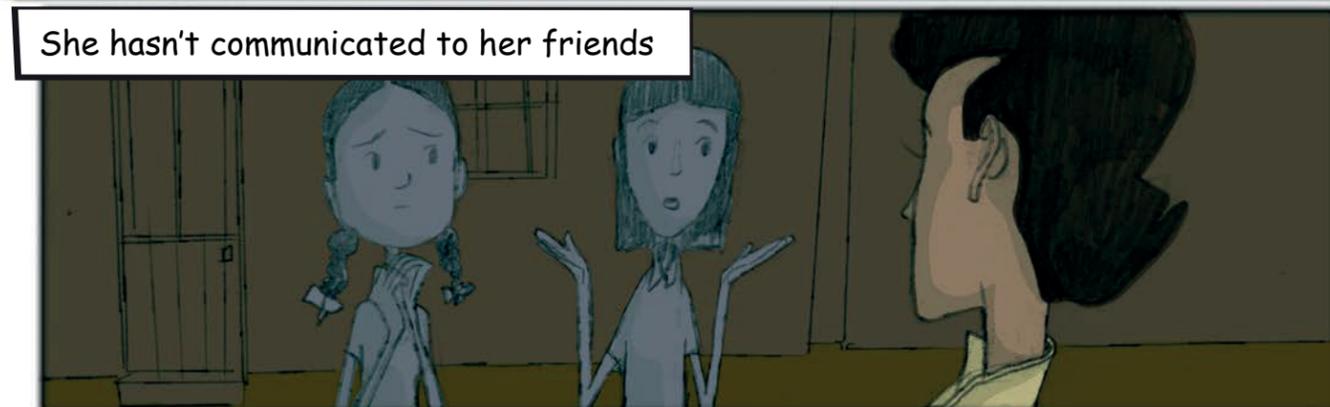

She no longer communicates, we wanted to call her but it was in vain.

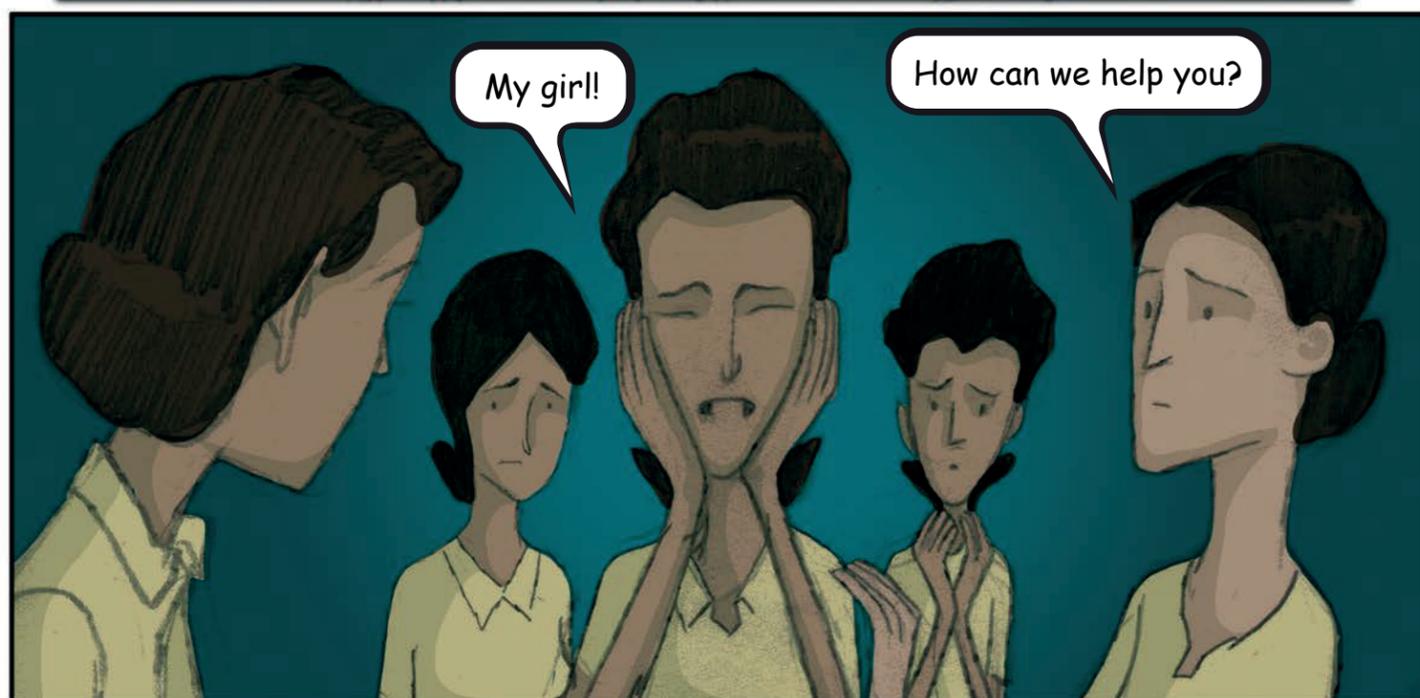

Her father went to look for her and the address that they gave us wasn't real.

We asked and nobody knows the man that took her.

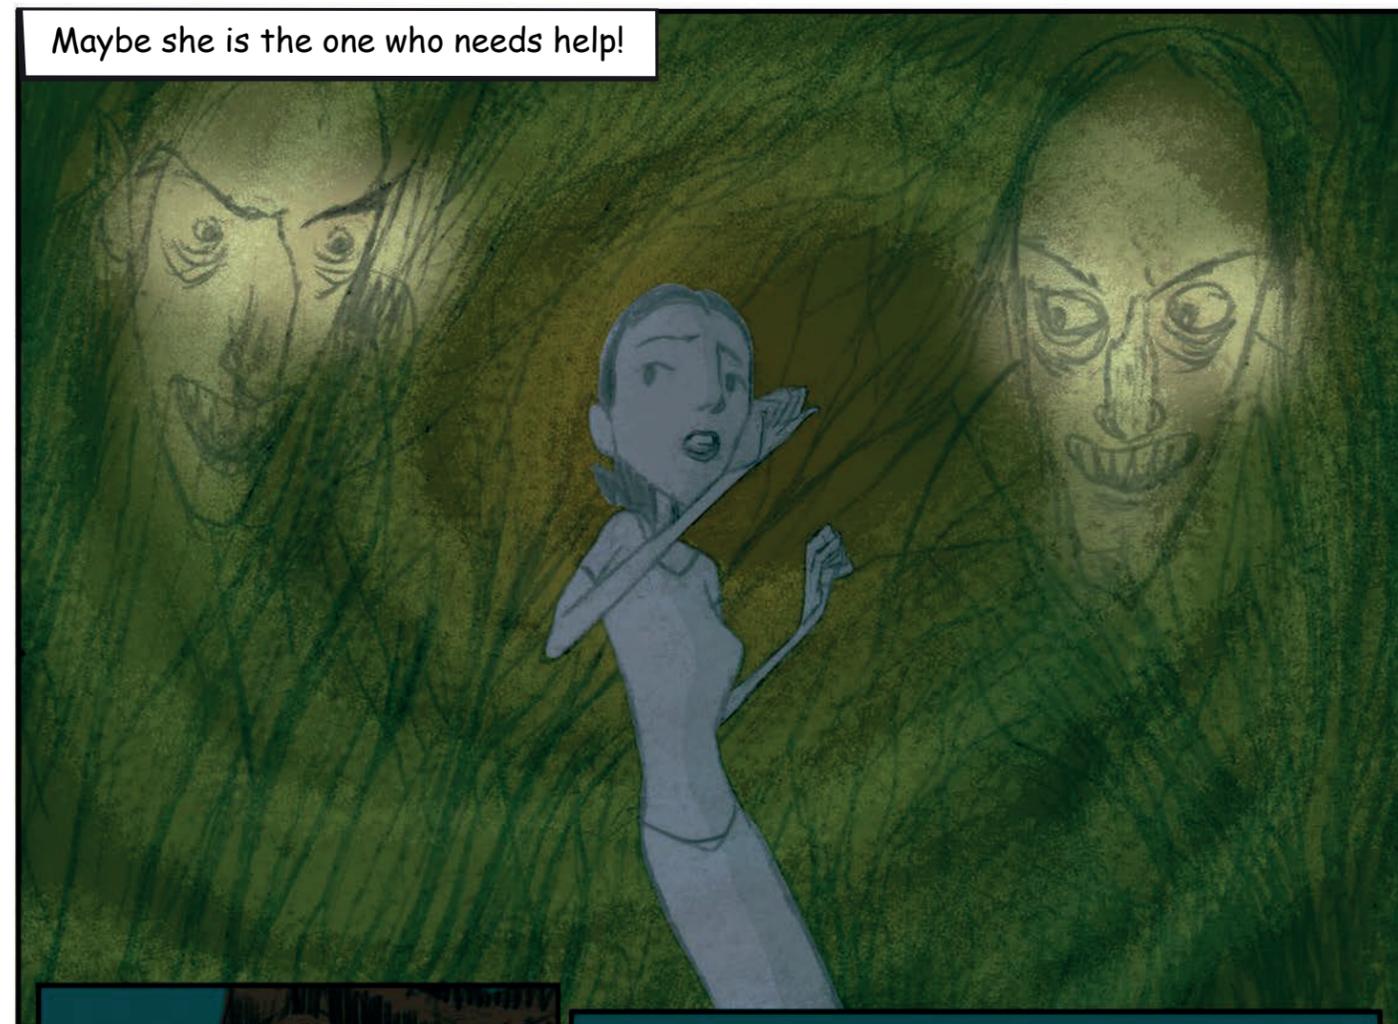

She hasn't communicated to her friends

My girl!

How can we help you?

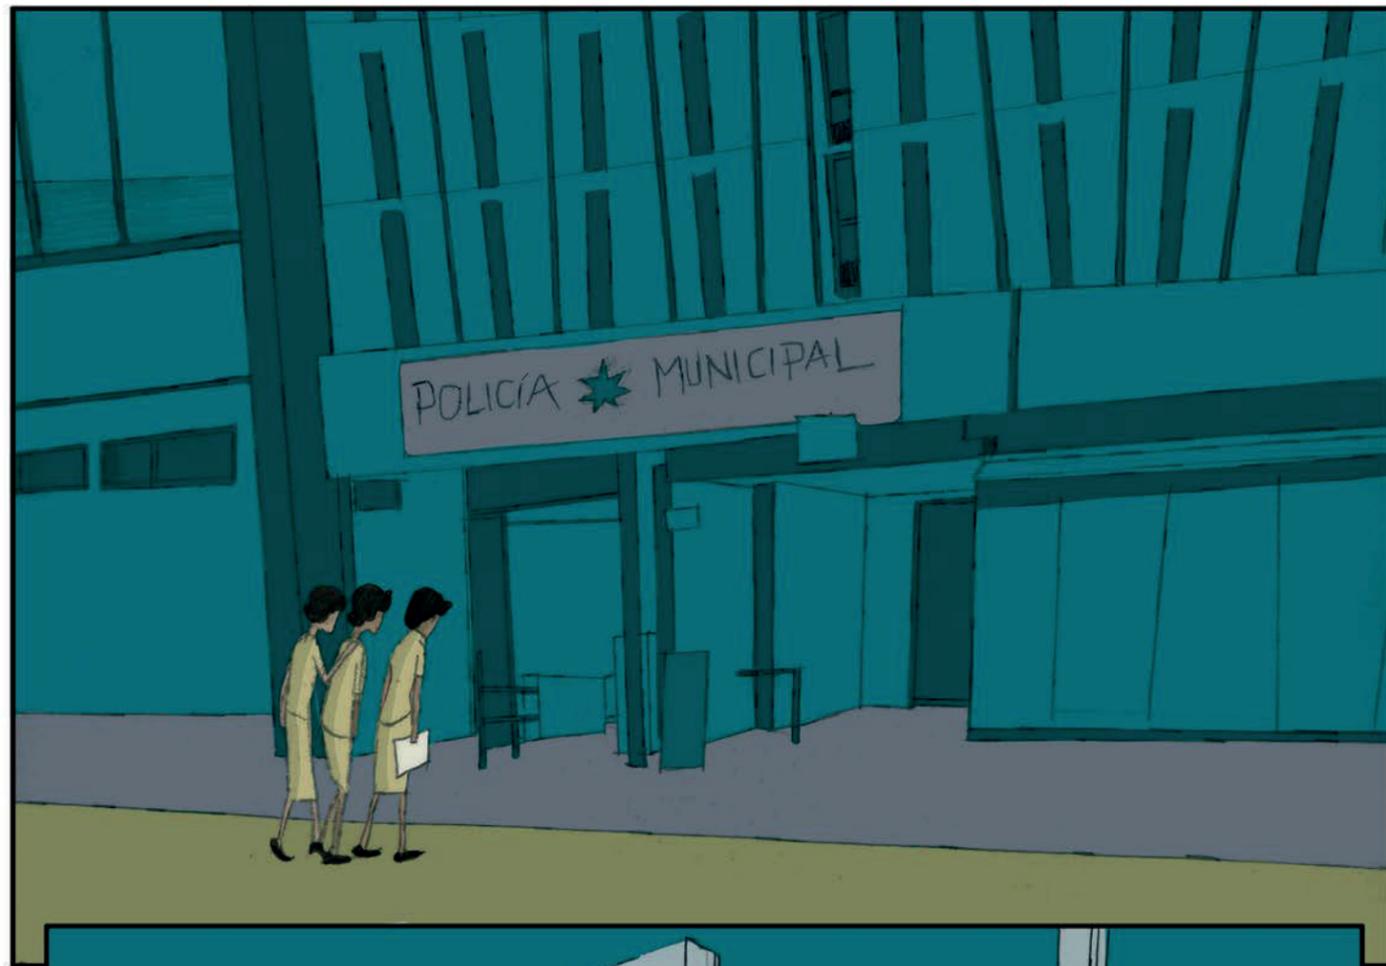

Maybe she is the one who needs help!

I am desperate! I don't want to do...

Let's go to the police.

And that's how things happened

From what you told me

Unfortunately, it is a possible case of human trafficking...

What did you say?

Your daughter

That's how they act, they promise something and deceive people. Then, once they are there, they exploit them

No, please!

¿LA HAS VISTO?

What's wrong concepción?

Have you seen her?

Concepcion tells everything about to cry

Adela is in danger!

Entering, they see the house empty!

This morning she told me that she was decided to take "that" job

Her distress grows upon entering the room

I was packing her bag! Where is she?

Maybe she went out... I'm going to look for her.

Where could she be?
I hope they didn't deceive her.

Mom...

Concepción feels that her soul comes back to her body

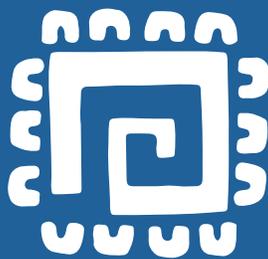

I wasn't going anywhere without telling you!

No, no. You don't have to go anywhere.

The End.
